The collage displays several screenshots of mobile and web interfaces:

- A large central screenshot shows a social media feed for "Rohit Ransore" featuring a post about Pixar's Rules of Storytelling.
- To the left, a smartphone screen shows a health and fitness app with sections for "Breastfeeding & Weaning" and "Ovulation Tracker".
- Below the central feed, a smartphone screen displays the homepage of a nutrition company named "PoshN" with the tagline "Balanced nutrition for a lean & fit body".
- On the right, there are two vertical stacks of screenshots:
 - The top stack shows a mobile app for booking appointments with professionals like "Lois Lane" (Nutritionist) and "Shweta Tiwari" (Chiropractor). It includes a calendar and availability grid.
 - The bottom stack shows a newsfeed for a technical meetup with posts like "Technical Python & Django Meetup Delhi - 2020".
- At the bottom, a large screenshot shows a navigation menu with options like "Home", "Messages", "My Groups", "Explore Groups", "My Posts", "Invite Friends", and "Settings".
